General Information

Meeting point and time: Please ensure that you will make your own way to the next scheduled appointment. We meet 5 minutes before the beginning of each event at the entrance or in the lobby, respectively. Important advice: Please take always your passport or photo ID to all company and any other institutional visits, as security guards may request them for entrance clearing.

Dress code: Smart business/business casual (not casual!): Generally, temperatures in both regions will be much higher than in Europe. As Singapore is situated only 140 kilometers from the Equator, temperatures and humidity are very high. Prefer light fabrics and include an umbrella in your luggage, as short and intense rain showers are numerous.

For women: A reasonable length skirt (not mini-skirt) or full-length pants of a non-jeans material combined with a sleeved top (such as a dress shirt, polo, or sweater set) is considered acceptable. An informal dress with sleeves and appropriate skirt length is also acceptable.

For men: Business Casual is among the most fluid and varied of dress codes. Generally speaking, ties are not worn with business casual. Most codes require that a collared shirt be worn. Dress pants or cotton twills such as chinos (khakis) are acceptable, but jeans are not. While loafers and other casual shoes are acceptable, sneakers and men's sandals are not.

Emergency contact: In case of emergency, please contact depending on the situation one of the following phone numbers:

Hong Kong: 999 (Police, Fire Services Department and Ambulance)

Singapore: 999 (General emergency) or 1800 255 0000 (Police Hotline)

Professor Dr Martin Wenz: +49 160 9641 0290 (mobile phone)

Important Information regarding the current political situation in Hong Kong

The current political situation in Hong Kong, may lead to changes in the programme! Demonstrations may lead to sections of the city being closed off and road blocks being set up. During recent protests, local buses, metro (MTR), Airport Express services and the Hong Kong Macao Ferry terminal have temporarily suspended operations without warning. Violent protests have also taken place inside or near MTR stations. You should remain vigilant at all times. Check your flight status regularly, keep up to date with the latest developments via local media and consider allowing extra time to travel to the airport and complete check-in procedures.

Acknowledgment

The Educational Journey to Hong Kong and Singapore is an integral part of the Executive Master of Laws (LL.M.) program in International Taxation (Module 7) at the University of Liechtenstein, Vaduz.

The students of the Executive Master of Laws (LL.M.) in International Taxation are all experienced practitioners on an executive level. They work for banks, trust and insurance companies, law and consulting firms as well as industrial companies in Liechtenstein, Austria, Germany, Switzerland and beyond. At the beginning of the Educational Journey to Hong Kong and Singapore they have all a good knowledge about the Liechtenstein, Austrian, German and Swiss National and International Tax Law including a more general insight into the Luxembourg and the British National and International Tax Law as well as a good knowledge about International and European Tax Law and International Tax Policy (G7, G20, OECD, Inclusive Framework, FHTP, Global Forum, FATF, EU).

Moreover, the students of the LL.M. in International Taxation also want to get a deeper insight into the National and International Tax Law and Tax Policy of Hong Kong and Singapore as well as into the International Tax Planning Opportunities with Hong Kong and Singapore. Hong Kong and Singapore are two very special, active and agile Asian and global spots for doing business and Corporate as well as Wealth Tax Management.

The Educational Journey to Hong Kong and Singapore is possible because of the excellent network and cooperation to and with top-ranked Universities like The University of Hong Kong and The National University of Singapore as well as to and with foreign and Liechtenstein financial institutions, banks, companies, law, accounting and consulting firms, tax authorities and governmental organizations like Baker & McKenzie, Singapore, Bendura Bank Liechtenstein AG (Representative Office Hong Kong), Citychamp Watch & Jewellery Group Limited, Hong Kong, Deacons Law Firm, Hong Kong, Deloitte China, Hong Kong, Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore, Invest Hong Kong, LGT Bank (Hong Kong), LGT Bank (Singapore) Ltd., Zhong Lun Law Firm, Hong Kong, and the Swiss Club Singapore.
